Recap – PPG wins the series 2-1

The comeback was complete on both fronts. The first come back was from a 2-0 deficit and defeated the Harbour Kings 3-2. The second come back was from the series. Just when everyone thought that PPG was going to be knocked out, they came back with an overtime win and then the win in Game 3. The Kings led 2-0 after the first period on goals by Merrit Maddux and Bernard Fung. But PPG got one back early in the second on a powerplay by Jeff Griffin. Griff then tied the game up with 4:22 left in the second, beating Emerson Keung as he subbed in for Kevin Rushton. In the third, with 3:10 to go, Ryan Harper's shot found its way past a screened Keung for PPG's first lead of the game. At the other end, Alexis Sekmakas returned to the line up and held the forte. With the win, PPG now will face Coors Light in the next round.
